the best comedy of the season, at Opera House Tuesday Evening, January 31.

Word was received in Logan last Saturday of the death of Frank Tennyhill in Lima. His death was caused from a fall from a horizontal bar in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium on Friday evening. His head received the force of the fall, causing paralysis, from the effects of which he died on Saturday morning. Frank had spent all his early life in Logan, where he was well liked, and had many friends. He went with the family to Lima several years ago, and would soon have finished a course in electrical engineering. He was about eighteen years old, and was a young man of exceptional brightness and ability. His father, Mr. Charles Tennyhill, his brother, Ed., and sister Mrs. Otto Juergensemer and husband went from Logan to attend the funeral.

In Memory of J. H. Kline.

J. H. Kline was born in Hocking County, Ohio November 5, 1848, died at Columbus Ohio, January 19, 1905, aged 56 yrs. 2 mo. and 14 days. He was reared in Hocking County and for thirty years he conducted a general merchandise business at Enterprise Ohio, where he was also agent for the Hocking Valley Railroad Company. In 1897 he was elected Treasurer of Hocking County and was re-elected two years later, serving both terms with honor to himself and his friends. After retiring from office he arranged his business affairs moving to Columbus Ohio last April.

Mr. Kline was a respected and beloved citizen. To make his acquaintance was to find a true friend for life. His character was one to pattern after, always the same kind man. His friends are legion. He occupied many positions of responsibility and always proved himself worthy of the confidence reposed in him. His taking off is a great loss to his many friends and our community, and his memory will live long for the many kind acts and social being in our community. Funeral services were held at the late residence in Columbus at six o'clock Friday evening conducted by Revs. N. W. Good and O. C. Wright. On Saturday the body was taken to Enterprise and on Sunday funeral services were held at Fairview M. E. Church under the auspices of the Odd Fellows and Red Men of Logan, Rev. Dowden preaching the funeral sermon. Interment in Fairview cemetery. November 19, 1869 Mr. Kline was united in marriage to Amanda E. Watts. To this union were born four children, two sons and two daughters, one daughter dying in infancy. October 9, 1881, he was deprived by death of his wife, May 5, 1882, he was married to Rachel Leatherman of Gratiot Ohio. He is survived by a widow, two sons and one daughter, J. A. Kline and George W. Kline of Enterprise and Mrs. Frank Comstock of Rockbridge Ohio. He also leaves three brothers and one sister besides a host of relatives and friends to mourn his untimely departure.

CARD OF THANKS.

Mrs. J. H. Kline and children desire to express their thanks to friends, neighbors and the Lodges for their kindness and sympathy shown them during their recent sad bereavement and for the many beautiful floral tributes.

Thrice Five Club.

Supt. and Mrs. H. T. Silverthorne received the Thrice Five Club on Monday evening at their home on Glenview Heights. Judge Bright and Mr. Silverthorne introduced the subject, which proved to be a most entertaining one, "Should There be More than One Ground for Divorce". Judge Bright discussing the affirmative side of the question, and Mr. Silverthorne, the negative. All the members expressed their views, and the meeting lacked nothing of life or interest. After the program, the hostess and her daughter served an excellent lunch to the company. The invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bright, Mrs. Ida B. Mathias, and Miss Nettie Long of Newark. All were much pleased to see Mrs. S. H. Bright at the meeting, as this was the first she had attended since her accident last spring.

Death of Mrs. Collins.

Mrs. Emma Cecilia Collins, daughter of William and Sarah Rippey, was born in Pittsburgh Pa., Oct. 30, 1828 and passed quietly from among us on Jan. 20, 1905, at the age of 76 yrs. 2 mo. and 20 days. In childhood she came with her parents to Logan where she has ever since made her home. On Nov. 13, 1844, she was married to Jesse Lee Collins, with whom she lived most happily for 47 years. Four daughters came to bless the home. Every one was welcomed with fondest affection. One was taken four years ago, three are still living.

Mrs. Collins came of a noble parentage and she proved herself in every way worthy of a place in her own house by the side of her honored husband. Truly they were a substantial part of Logan. They were not looked upon as persons who merely occupied a place in the Community, they were real contributors and sources of strength to the Commercial, Social and Religious interest of the town.

Mrs. Collins gave great encouragement to her husband's enthusiasm to bear a large share in the financial and spiritual responsibilities of the church. No sacrifice was too great for the cause she loved so well.

Through a lifetime of ill health her heart has been warm and her hands active in seeking to bless her home and friends. Among the older people of Logan Mrs. Collins is known and loved in a manner not possible to the younger generation. The appreciation of her companionship and cheery good-will for everybody is expressed in the silent tears and subdued sighs of every true-hearted citizen. When a real monument of the best thought and life of our town is removed, every kindred spirit feels the shock and knows the sorrow.

Mrs. Collins was a very true christian. The light and love of a personal Saviour that came into her heart in the early dawn of womanhood has never departed. Through sunshine and shadow, upon smooth and rough seas, even amid the storms of disappointment and sorrow when no human voice could be heard with words of consolation the sweet peace of an abiding Comforter has remained. Daily prayer was to her an unfailing source of strength and hope. When the last hour approached the one only wish to remain was that she might still be a comfort and guide to the family; but all was committed to the wisdom of Him who knoweth best.

The end was quiet and peaceful and the voice has already joined in Celestial Choir that shall have no end.

"These are they which came out of great tribulation and have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb."

The funeral services were held at the home on Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. T. B. White of the M. E. Church conducting them. The funeral was largely attended by those who had known and loved the deceased during her life. The relatives, who were present from a distance, were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rippey of Pittsburg; Mrs. Charles Monroe and son Ned and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Moore of Columbus; Mrs. John Moyer of Lancaster and Mrs. Mary Westenberg of Rockbridge.

Radium and Liquid Air.

A demonstration of these wonderful discoveries will be made at the M. E. Church Saturday night.

The Passing of Lush Hull.

They do say that Lush Hull has been let out as Mine Inspector. Did the bosses throw him down?

Mr. Frank Kessler who has been very sick with rheumatism and confined to his home, we are glad to learn, is now able to be upon the street again.

OBITUARY.

Abraham Red was born near Baltimore Fairfield Co., O. Aug. 2 and 1825. and departed this life Jan. 17th 1905. Aged 79 years 5 months 15 days. He moved with his parents, in early life, to Perry Co., O. and on Dec. 9th 1852, was united in marriage to Elizabeth Poling who still survives him.

This union was blessed with 8 children 6 sons and two daughters of which 2 sons and 1 daughter have preceded him to the spirit land, leaving a bereaved widow 4 sons 1 daughter 38 grand-children and 5 great grand-children with a host of neighbors and friends to mourn his departure. He was converted, and joined the Webb Chapel M. E. Church and remained a consistent member until about the year 1862 when he moved to his present home and was transferred to the Bethany U. B. Church at this place and was an active and faithful member until his death, serving in different official capacities and was a trustee and continuous subscriber of the Telescope, the religious organ of the church for more than 40 years.

His hospitable home has stood ready for years to receive the ministers and other christian workers where they always received a hearty welcome. He was confined to his bed for the last 7 weeks and his death did not come unexpectedly to his friends and people, but yet with what weight it comes pressing in upon us.

Father Red is gone, there is a vacant pew in the church, a vacant chair in the home but the memory of his presence and of his wise counsel will ever be cherished.

How easy it is that we say of one like he that he was a good man. Of him such words do not come as a compromise of the conscience in thus gently speaking of the dead, but come as the open truth and stand out as the whole truth with out one doubt.

Even in his ill health he never lost sight of his kindly spirit, nor was heard to murmur or complain.

What self sacrifice, what a spirit of godliness must pervade the soul of such as he.

Is it any wonder that when God called his spirit home that he slept away with no pain to rack his frail body but with happy smiles sustained and soothed by an unfaltering trust, approach death like one who wraps the drapery of his couch about him and lies down to pleasant dreams.

Peace to his soul and strength to his good family to bear the loss of one so noble.

He strengthened our faith and has led us nearer the cross.

Praise God that he had a being among us and permitted us in ministering to him to minister to the Lord and Savior.

Father Red farewell until that day when we all shall meet in the Fathers house above.

Tis hard to break the tender cord,
When love has bound the heart,
Tis hard to speak the words,
We must forever part.

Dearest loved one we must lay thee,
In the peaceful graves embrace,
But thy memory will be cherished,
Till we see thy heavenly face.

Funeral services were held at the Bethany U. B. church, Thursday forenoon where a large concourse of people had assembled to pay their last respects.

Rev. J. B. Mathias officiating. His body now rests in Oak Grove cemetery.

Factory News.

LOGAN BRICK MFG. CO.

Mr. Thew of Lorraine, Ohio, and M. McBride of the Robinson Clay Product Co. of Akron were visitors at the plant on Monday. Mr. Thew was looking after the interests of the steam shovel which his company has been installing and Mr. McBride was interested in the clay, etc.

The factories are working full in all departments, and the stock of brick is increasing, preparatory for the spring and summer trade. About two hundred men are now employed.

LOGAN POTTERY CO.

The plant did not run on last Saturday on account of one of the pug mills being out of order, and not furnishing enough clay.

Mr. Marion Bell has commenced work at the plant as driver of the team.

Several carload orders were received last week, and the shipment of twelve crated orders was made.

This week closes the second year of the making of ware at the plant. Last year's sales amounted to about one hundred car loads, which was about double the first years shipment. This year has opened up with a good business, and prospects for an increase over last year's trade.

SNIDER MFG. CO.

The first shipment of the new line of goods was made on Wednesday.

The Company has added a line of dressers to the list. The dressers will be made in sixteen different designs.

RUG AND SKIRT FACTORY.

The Garment Company now has two traveling salesmen on the road, the one taking the territory out from Columbus, and Mr. Frank Rose having southern Ohio and West Virginia. The season has opened up with prospects for a good trade, their being more orders on the books than there was this time last year.
